

ASPEN WORD SEARCH QUESTIONS

1. Aspen is the most widespread tree in the northern hemisphere. Is it common or rare in Scotland?
2. Aspen is the favourite food of what large aquatic mammal?
3. Aspen rarely flowers and sets seed. When it does the flowers and seeds form a clusters called c_____?
4. Aspen multiplies by sending up new shoots from its spreading roots. What is the name given to these shoots? S_____
5. The shoots mature to form a stand of genetically identical trees which are called c_____.
6. The leaves of the aspen quiver in the wind. This is reflected in its latin name which is Populus t_____.
7. Aspen trees are home to many rare small plants and animals. What scientific term which means “the variety of life”.
Bi_____
8. Name four things that aspen wood is good for making.
9. What is the old gaelic name for aspen? E_____
10. Aspen represents the letter “E” in the Celtic tree alphabet and in O_____ inscriptions used during the Dark Ages.
11. The biggest organism on Earth is an aspen clone in North America which has 40,000 stems and weighs nearly 6000 tonnes. What is its name? P_____