

Membership Form

Eadha Enterprises is a new charity dedicated to conserving rare native trees in Scotland. We also promote community involvement and environmental education and organise tree planting events around the country where volunteers can be involved. You can join Eadha as an ORDINARY MEMBER to support our conservation and communitiy work or become a “PARTNER PROPAGATOR” and be practically involved. Groups including for example allotments, community growers and schools can also become Partners Propagators

ORDINARY MEMBERS receive the following:

- Regular E- bulletins
- Information about Tree Planting Events

“PARTNER PROPAGATORS” receive the following in addition to the above:

- Propagation Kit including:
 - 2 Scottish Aspen saplings
 - Clone Provenance Certificate
 - 18 litre air-pot (flat packed)
 - 16 litre air-pot tray (flat packed)
 - Propagation Instructions
 - Air-pot Assembly Instructions

TREE PLANTING EVENTS

All members will be invited to the ANNUAL GATHERING where they can plant trees and meet other members . Other tree planting events across the country will be publicised throughout the planting season. Partner Propagators can bring their trees along to plant at these events.
